IV. FORWARD LOOKING INFORMATION

Some of the statements contained in this Memorandum, including information incorporated by reference, discuss future expectations, or state other forward-looking information. Those statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, several of which are beyond the Company's control, which could cause the actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the statements. The forward-looking information is based on various factors and was derived using numerous assumptions. In light of the risks, assumptions, and uncertainties involved, there can be no assurance that the forward-looking information contained in this Memorandum will in fact transpire or prove to be accurate.

Important factors that may cause the actual results to differ from those expressed within may include, but are not limited to:

- The success or failure of the Company's efforts to successfully market its products and services as scheduled;
- The Company's ability to attract, build, and maintain a customer base;
- The Company's ability to attract and retain quality employees;
- The effect of changing economic conditions;
- The effect of changing regulations, particularly in technology sectors;
- Political and regulatory uncertainties related to the adoption and regulation of cryptocurrencies;
- Potential regulatory changes affecting artificial intelligence technologies;
- Rapid technological changes that could render the Company's assets obsolete or less competitive;
- Cybersecurity risks and the potential for data breaches impacting the Company's cryptographic technologies;
- The ability of the Company to effectively integrate and manage acquired assets;
- Market acceptance and the commercialization success of newly developed or acquired technologies;

- The Company's dependence on third-party providers for technology and infrastructure support;
- The ability of the Company to obtain adequate debt financing if only a fraction of this Offering is sold;
- Potential intellectual property disputes and the costs associated with defending against them;
- The impact of global political instability on technology markets and the Company's operations;
- The risk of insufficient capital to sustain long-term R&D and marketing efforts;
- The Company's ability to maintain its competitive edge amidst intense industry competition.

These along with other risks, which are described under "RISK FACTORS" may be described in future communications to shareholders. The Company makes no representation and undertakes no obligation to update the forward-looking information to reflect actual results or changes in assumptions or other factors that could affect those statements.

V. RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Company's Shares is very risky. You should be able to bear a complete loss of your investment. You should carefully consider the following factors, including those listed in the accompanying business plan.

A. Development Stage Business

The Company commenced operations in August of 2021 and is organized as a corporation under the laws of the State of Nevada. The Company is currently in the growth stage, having moved beyond the initial startup phase. However, it still faces challenges associated with expanding its operations. The Company's proposed operations are subject to all business risks related to scaling up, including potential problems, expenses, difficulties, complications, and delays often encountered in competitive industries.

As we continue to develop and market our products and services, we must address the complexities of building and maintaining a customer base, enhancing advertising and promotional efforts, and managing operational growth. Despite these challenges, the Company aims to capitalize on its strategic acquisitions and technological advancements to achieve profitability. However, there is a possibility that the Company could sustain losses in the future, and there can be no assurances that we will operate profitably.

B. Inadequacy of Funds

Gross offering proceeds of a minimum of $100,000 and a maximum of $10,000,000 may be realized. Management believes that such proceeds will capitalize and sustain the Company sufficiently to allow for the implementation of the Company's Business Plans. If only a fraction of this Offering is sold, or if certain assumptions contained in Management's business plans prove to be incorrect, the Company may have inadequate funds to fully develop its business and may need debt financing or other capital investment to fully implement the Company's business plans.

C. Dependence on Management

In the early stages of development, the Company's business will be significantly dependent on the Company's management team. The Company's success will be particularly dependent upon Eric Liboiron and Savanna Spieckerman. The loss of any one of these individuals could have a material adverse effect on the Company. To mitigate this risk, the Company has obtained a key person insurance policy for both Eric Liboiron and Savanna Spieckerman.

Key Person Insurance, is a life insurance policy that the Company purchased on the life of these individuals. The Company is the beneficiary of the policy and pays the premiums. This type of insurance is designed to help protect the Company financially if any of the key person dies or becomes incapacitated. There can be no assurance that such insurance will continue in force or will be sufficient to enable the Company to secure officers and directors with the required skill set to effectively manage the Company and its assets into the future in the event Eric Liboiron and/or Savanna Spieckerman die or become otherwise incapacitated.

For more details, see the "MANAGEMENT" section.

D. Risks Associated with Expansion

As NB Tech Acquisitions Corp. progresses through its growth stage, it faces several risks associated with expansion that could impact its ability to successfully scale operations and bring products to market. The costs of development, including research and development expenses, can be substantial and may not always result in successful or marketable products. Technological challenges and effective resource allocation are crucial to ensure projects stay on track and within budget.

Marketing costs also pose significant risks. Successfully introducing new technologies to the market requires substantial investment in marketing and promotional activities to create awareness and generate demand. The competitive technology sector demands robust and adaptive marketing strategies, which can be costly. Additionally, building and maintaining a customer base involves considerable expenses related to sales, customer service, and support infrastructure.

The Company plans on expanding its business through a sophisticated marketing campaign and a B2B approach utilizing value-added resellers. Any such expansion will entail risks, including operational activities that may negatively impact profitability. Shareholders must assume the risk that expansion may require expenditures beyond the Company's available resources and that managing expanded operations may divert management's attention and resources from existing operations. These factors could materially affect the Company's present and future business activities.

E. Competition

NB Tech Acquisitions Corp. operates in a highly competitive industry, facing competition from both established corporations and innovative startups, including those backed by significant venture capital funding. This competitive landscape presents several risks that could impact the Company's ability to achieve its business objectives.

The presence of large, well-established corporations in the technology sector means that NB Tech Acquisitions Corp. must continuously innovate and improve its offerings to remain competitive. These industry giants often have substantial financial resources, extensive research and development capabilities, and well-established customer bases, allowing them to quickly adapt to market changes and exert significant pricing pressure.

In addition to competition from major corporations, the Company also faces challenges from nimble, VC-funded startups that can rapidly bring new and disruptive technologies to market. These startups often operate with lean structures and aggressive growth strategies, making them formidable competitors. The intense competition can lead to market saturation, making it more difficult for NB Tech Acquisitions Corp. to differentiate its products and capture market share.

The competitive pressures also necessitate significant investment in marketing and sales efforts to build and maintain a customer base. The Company must allocate resources effectively to stay ahead of competitors, which can strain financial and operational capabilities. Failure to do so could result in a loss of market position and negatively impact profitability.

Furthermore, as the Company seeks to expand its product offerings and enter new markets, it may encounter barriers to entry established by existing competitors, including strong brand loyalty, exclusive customer relationships, and extensive patent portfolios. Overcoming these barriers requires strategic planning, substantial financial investment, and innovative solutions.

F. Trend in Consumer Preferences and Spending

NB Tech Acquisitions Corp.'s business model heavily relies on trends in online shopping, cryptocurrency, social media, and mobile app usage. These dependencies introduce several risks related to consumer preferences and spending habits that could significantly impact the Company's success and profitability.

Consumer preferences and spending patterns are inherently dynamic and can be influenced by a variety of factors, including technological advancements, economic conditions, and cultural trends. A shift away from online shopping, for instance, could reduce the demand for certain technology assets developed by the Company. If consumers begin to prefer in-store experiences or other forms of purchasing, the investments in technologies tailored for online retail might not yield the expected returns.

The volatility of the cryptocurrency market presents another substantial risk. Consumer and business adoption of cryptocurrencies can fluctuate based on regulatory changes, security concerns, and market sentiment. A decrease in the use of cryptocurrencies for transactions or investments could adversely affect the demand for the Company's cryptographic technologies and related products.

Social media usage is also a critical factor for the Company's business model. Changes in consumer behavior regarding social media platforms can impact the effectiveness of marketing strategies and the reach of promotional activities. A decline in social media engagement or a shift to new platforms not yet integrated into the Company's marketing plans could reduce the effectiveness of these efforts, leading to lower customer acquisition and retention rates.

Additionally, the reliance on mobile app usage poses its own set of risks. The market for mobile applications is highly competitive and rapidly evolving. Consumer preferences for mobile apps can change quickly, influenced by emerging technologies, new app offerings, and changes in operating systems. If the Company fails to keep pace with these trends or if consumers reduce their use of mobile apps, the demand for related technologies could decline.

Economic conditions also play a crucial role in consumer spending on technology products and services. During economic downturns, consumers and businesses may reduce their spending on non-essential technology, which could negatively impact the Company's sales and profitability. Conversely, economic booms may increase spending but also attract more competitors, intensifying market competition.

G. Risks of Borrowing

If the Company incurs indebtedness, a portion of its cash flow will have to be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on such indebtedness. Typical loan agreements also might contain restrictive covenants, which may impair the Company's operating flexibility. Such loan agreements would also provide for default under certain circumstances, such as failure to meet certain financial covenants. A default under a loan agreement could result in the loan becoming immediately due and payable and, if unpaid, a judgment in favor of such lender which would be senior to the rights of shareholders of the Company. A judgment creditor would have the right to foreclose on any of the Company's assets resulting in a material adverse effect on the Company's business, operating results or financial condition.

H. Unanticipated Obstacles to Execution of the Business Plan

The Company's business plans may change significantly. Many of the Company's potential business endeavors are capital intensive and may be subject to statutory or regulatory requirements. Management believes that the Company's chosen activities and strategies are achievable in light of current economic and legal conditions with the skills, background, and knowledge of the Company's principals and advisors. Management reserves the right to make significant modifications to the Company's stated strategies depending on future events.

I. Management Discretion as to Use of Proceeds

The net proceeds from this Offering will be used for the purposes described under "Use of Proceeds." The Company reserves the right to use the funds obtained from this Offering for other similar purposes not presently contemplated which it deems to be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders in order to address changed circumstances or opportunities. As a result of the foregoing, the success of the Company will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of Management with respect to application and allocation of the net proceeds of this Offering. Investors for the Shares offered hereby will be entrusting their funds to the Company's Management, upon whose judgment and discretion the investors must depend.

J. Control By Management

As of the date on the cover of this Memorandum, the Company's Directors and Executive Officers own approximately 60.30% of the Company's outstanding Shares.³ Upon completion of this Offering, presuming the maximum number of Shares offered via this Memorandum are sold, the Company's Directors and Executive Officers will own approximately 13.62% of the issued and outstanding Shares. Other shareholders currently own a minority percentage of the Company. If less than the maximum number of Shares offered hereby are sold, Investors may not have the ability to control the Company or carry a majority vote for the Company's Directors. See "MANAGEMENT" section.

K. Return of Profits

The Company intends to retain any future earnings to fund operations and expand its business. Currently, there are no plans to distribute profits to shareholders. A shareholder will be entitled to receive revenue profits proportionate to the amount of Shares held by that shareholder if and when the Company decides to distribute profits in the future. The Company's management will determine a profit distribution plan based on the Company's operational results, financial condition, capital requirements, and other relevant factors. For more details, see the "DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES" section.

L. Reliance on Trade Secrets

In certain cases, the Company may rely on trade secrets to protect intellectual property, proprietary technology and processes, which the Company has acquired, developed or may develop in the future. There can be no assurances that secrecy obligations will be honored or that others will not independently develop similar or superior products or technology. The protection of intellectual property and/or proprietary technology through claims of trade secret status has been the subject of increasing claims and litigation by various companies both in order to protect proprietary rights as well as for competitive reasons even where proprietary claims are unsubstantiated. The prosecution of proprietary claims or the defense of such claims is costly and uncertain given the uncertainty and rapid development of the principles of law pertaining to this area. The Company, in common with other firms, may also be subject to claims by other parties with regard to the use of intellectual property, technology information and data, which may be deemed proprietary to others.

M. Dilution

Purchasers of Shares will experience immediate, material, and substantial dilution based upon the current net tangible book value per Share, (assuming maximum offering proceeds are achieved). Additional Shares issued by the Company in the future will also dilute a purchaser's investment in the Shares.

N. Limited Transferability and Liquidity

To satisfy the requirements of certain exemptions from registration under the Securities Act, and to conform with applicable state securities laws, each investor must acquire his Shares for investment purposes only and not with a view towards distribution. Consequently, certain conditions of the Securities Act may need to be satisfied prior to any sale, transfer, or other disposition of the Shares. Some of these conditions may include a minimum holding period, availability of certain reports, including financial statements from the Company, limitations on the percentage of Shares sold and the manner in which they are sold. The Company can prohibit any sale, transfer or disposition unless it receives an opinion of counsel provided at the holder's expense, in a form satisfactory to the Company, stating that the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition will not result in a violation of applicable federal or state securities laws and regulations. No public market exists for the Shares and no market is expected to develop. Consequently, owners of the Shares may have to hold their investment indefinitely and may not be able to liquidate their investments in the Company or pledge them as collateral for a loan in the event of an emergency.

O. Resales of Shares on the Secondary Market

The Company's Common Stock Shares are not currently traded on any exchange, and there can be no assurances that a secondary market will ever develop for the Shares or that the Company will ultimately be listed on any exchange or quotation system such as NASDAQ, OTCBB, etc.⁴

P. Long Term Nature of Investment

An investment in the Shares may be long term and illiquid. As discussed above, the offer and sale of the Shares will not be registered under the Securities Act or any foreign or state securities laws by reason of exemptions from such registration, which depends in part on the investment intent of the investors. Prospective investors will be required to represent in writing that they are purchasing the Shares for their own account for long-term investment and not with a view towards resale or distribution. Accordingly, purchasers of Shares must be willing and able to bear the economic risk of their investment for an indefinite period of time. It is likely that investors will not be able to liquidate their investment in the event of an emergency.

Q. No Current Market for Shares

There is no current market for the Shares offered in this private Offering and no market is expected to develop in the near future.

R. Compliance with Securities Laws

The Shares are being offered for sale in reliance upon certain exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, applicable Nevada Securities Laws, and other applicable state securities laws. If the sale of Shares were to fail to qualify for these exemptions, purchasers may seek rescission of their purchases of Shares. If a number of purchasers were to obtain rescission, we would face significant financial demands, which could adversely affect us as a whole, as well as any non-rescinding purchasers.

S. Offering Price

The price of the Shares offered has been arbitrarily established by the Company, considering such matters as the state of the Company's business development and the general condition of the industry in which it operates. The Offering price bears little relationship to the assets, net worth, or any other objective criteria of value applicable to the Company

T. Lack of Firm Underwriter

The Shares are offered on a "best efforts" basis by our Management without compensation. Currently, we are not working with FINRA registered broker-dealers. As a result, the Company will handle capital raising efforts in-house, which may involve paying marketing fees and introduction fees from time to time. While the Company may seek to engage FINRA broker-dealers in the future, there is no assurance that such arrangements will be made or that they will result in the sale of the maximum Shares offered or any lesser amount. Therefore, there is no assurance that the Company, or any broker-dealer, will sell the maximum Shares offered or any lesser amount.

U. Projections: Forward Looking Information

Management has prepared projections regarding our anticipated financial performance. The Company's projections are hypothetical and based upon a presumed financial performance of the Company, the addition of a sophisticated and well-funded marketing plan, and other factors influencing our business. The projections are based on Management's best estimate of the probable results of operations of the Company, based on present circumstances, and have not been reviewed by the Company independent accountants or counsel. These projections are based on several assumptions, set forth therein, which Management believes are reasonable. Some assumptions upon which the projections are based, however, invariably will not materialize due the inevitable occurrence of unanticipated events and circumstances beyond Management's control. Therefore, actual results of operations will vary from the projections, and such variances may be material. Assumptions regarding future changes in sales and revenues are necessarily speculative in nature. In addition, projections do not and cannot take into account such factors as general economic conditions, unforeseen regulatory changes, the entry to market of additional competitors, the terms and conditions of future capitalization, and other risks inherent to the Company's business. While Management believes that the projections accurately reflect possible future results of our operations, those results cannot be guaranteed.

V. We may enter into one or more side letters

The Company, without the approval of any shareholder or any other person, may enter into a "side letter" with one or more investors or other persons. Such side letters may materially waive or modify the application of, or grant special or more favorable rights with respect to, any provision of this Memorandum, a Subscription Agreement, or preference, including the granting of discounts, stock options, and/or other incentives. Existing or potential investors entering into such arrangements may comprise, for example, individuals, broker-dealers, insurance companies, registered investment companies, private funds, trusts, non-profit organizations and charitable organizations, pension plans, banking or other financial institutions, state or municipal government entities and sovereign wealth funds. The Company is not limited in its ability to enter into any side letters and will not be obligated to (and does not intend to) disclose the terms of such side letters in the event they exist, including, without limitation, the identity of the parties thereto, to any Member, save where the types of such terms and types of investors are required to be disclosed for regulatory purposes.

W. General Economic Conditions

The financial success of the Company may be sensitive to adverse changes in general economic conditions in the United States, such as recession, inflation, unemployment, and interest rates. Such changing conditions could reduce demand in the marketplace for the Company's products. Management believes that the impending growth of the market, mainstream market acceptance and our targeted product line will insulate the Company from excessive reduced demand. Nevertheless, we have no control over these changes nor adverse negative impact of important regulation changes.

VI. USE OF PROCEEDS

The Company seeks to raise minimum gross proceeds of $100,000 and maximum gross proceeds of $10,000,000 from the sale of Shares in this Offering. The Company intends to apply these proceeds substantially as set forth herein, subject only to reallocation by Management in the best interests of the Company. Inasmuch as it is impossible to predict exact costs and the expenses necessary to conduct the business of the Company, actual expenditures could vary substantially and materially from the following estimated forecasts:

Currently, there are no members on the Board of Advisors, but we are actively seeking to hire qualified individuals to fill these positions.

X. DILUTION

The purchasers of the Common Stock Shares offered by this Memorandum will experience an immediate, material, and substantial dilution of their investments. There are 1,000,000,000 authorized Shares of the Company of which 18,257,000 Shares are currently issued and outstanding. The net tangible book value per Share of the Company is equal to the Company’s total tangible assets less its total liabilities, divided by the total number of outstanding Shares of ownership. Upon completion of this Offering, the net tangible book value for the Shares, which are now outstanding, will be increased with corresponding dilution for the Shares sold to investors. “Dilution” is determined by subtracting the net tangible book value per Common Stock Share after the Offering from the Offering price. To determine this calculation, please refer to the Company’s financial statements either in the exhibit section of this Memorandum or which will be made available by the Company upon request.

XI. CURRENT SHAREHOLDERS

The following table contains certain information as of the date of this Memorandum as to the number of Shares beneficially owned by (i) each person known by the Company to own beneficially more than 5% of the Company’s Shares, (ii) each person who is a Managing Officer of the Company, (iii) all persons as a group who are Directors and/or Officers of the Company, and as to the percentage of the outstanding Shares held by them on such dates and as adjusted to give effect to this Offering.

Eric Liboiron, CEO and Director	60.30%	11,000,000	13.62%

XII. COMMON STOCK SHARE OPTION AND WARRANT AGREEMENTS

The Company has not yet entered into any stock option or warrant agreements allowing investors to purchase Common Stock Shares in the Company at a future date, but we reserve the right to do so at any time without notice. We may also adopt an employee stock option or equity incentive plan at any time in the future upon approval by the Board of Directors. Such an occurrence may have a material dilutive effect upon your relative ownership of the Company (See “Dilution”).

XIII. LITIGATION

The Company is not presently a party to any material litigation, nor to the knowledge of Management is any litigation threatened against the Company, which may materially affect the business of the Company or its assets.

Shareholders are only entitled to profit distributions proportionate to their Shares of ownership when and if declared by Management out of funds legally available therefore. The Company to date has not

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, and pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), Rule 506 promulgated thereunder and/or Regulation S under the Securities Act, the Company desires to issue and sell to the Subscriber, and the Subscriber desires to purchase from the Company, that number of Shares of the Company’s common stock, $0.001 par value per Share (“Common Stock”) and that number of warrants to purchase Shares of Common Stock (“Warrants”) set forth on the signature page hereto, to persons who are not U.S. persons under Regulation S and persons who are “accredited investors” (as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act), in a private placement (the “Offering”); and

WHEREAS, the Subscriber understands that the Offering is being made without registration of the Common Stock under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or any securities law of any state of the United States or of any other jurisdiction, and is being made only to accredited investors or non-U.S. persons.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto do hereby agree as follows:

1. Subscription for Shares.

(a) Subscription for Shares. Subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, Subscriber hereby irrevocably subscribes for and agrees to purchase from the Company such amounts of Common Stock as is set forth on the signature page hereof (the “Shares”) at a price per Share of Common Stock equal to $0.16, for an aggregate purchase price as set forth on the signature page hereof (the “Purchase Price”), and the Company agrees to sell such Shares to Subscriber for the Purchase Price, subject to the Company’s right, in its sole discretion, to reject this subscription, in whole or in part, at any time prior to the Closing (as defined below). Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber is not entitled to cancel, terminate or revoke this Subscription Agreement. Subscriber further acknowledges that the Shares will be subject to restrictions on transfer as set forth in this Subscription Agreement.

2. Terms of Subscription.

(a) Payment. Subscriber shall make payment for the Shares to an account designated by the Company in an amount equal to the Purchase Price by check or wire transfer of immediately available funds at or prior to the Closing.

(b) Acceptance of Subscription and Issuance of Shares. It is understood and agreed that the Company shall have the sole right, at its complete discretion, to accept or reject this subscription, in whole or in part, for any reason and that the same shall be deemed to be accepted by the Company only when it is signed by a duly authorized officer of the Company and delivered to the undersigned at the Closing (as defined below). Notwithstanding anything in this Subscription Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have no obligation to issue any of the Shares to any person who is a resident of a jurisdiction in which the issuance of securities to such person would constitute a violation of the securities, “blue sky” or other similar laws.

(c) Closing. The Offering may be consummated at such place (or by electronic transmission) as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties at a closing (the “Closing”) to occur on a date as may be determined by the Company, at a time as may be determined by the Company. Subsequent closings may occur at the discretion of the Company.

(d) Closing Deliverables. At the Closing: (i) Subscriber shall deliver the Purchase Price; and (ii) the Company shall deliver share certificates representing the Shares to Subscriber that bear an appropriate legend referring to the fact that the Common Stock and Warrants are subject to transfer restrictions as set forth in the Securities Act.

3. Representations and Warranties of Subscriber.

Subscriber represents and warrants to the Company that:

(a) Reliance on Exemptions. Subscriber understands that the Shares are being offered and sold in reliance upon specific exemptions from registration provided in the Securities Act, and upon exemptions from registration under State securities laws, and acknowledges that the Offering has not been reviewed by the Securities and Exchange Commission or any state agency because it is intended to be a nonpublic offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and State securities laws. Subscriber understands that the Company is relying upon, and intends that the Company rely upon, the truth and accuracy of, and Subscriber's compliance with, the representations, warranties, agreements, acknowledgments and understandings of Subscriber set forth herein in order to determine the availability of such exemptions and the eligibility of Subscriber to acquire the Shares. The Company may only make offers to sell the Shares to persons outside the United States in this Offering if at the time any buy order is originated, the buyer is outside the United States. If the undersigned is a person outside the United States the undersigned has not received an offer to purchase Shares inside the United States and will not originate a buy order inside the United States.

(b) Investment Purpose. The undersigned is either (i) an "accredited investor" if a U.S. investor, or (ii) not a U.S. person as defined under Rule 902 of Regulation S, and the Shares are being purchased for Subscriber's own account, for investment purposes only and not for distribution or resale to others in contravention of the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Subscriber agrees that it will not sell or otherwise transfer the Shares unless they are registered under the Securities Act or unless an exemption from such registration is available under the Securities Act and permitted by the articles of incorporation of the Company. Subscriber has no contract, undertaking, agreement, or arrangement with any person to sell, distribute, transfer, or pledge to such person or anyone else the Shares which Subscriber hereby subscribes to purchase, or any interest therein, and Subscriber has no present plans to enter into any such contract, undertaking, agreement, or arrangement. Subscriber agrees that the Company and its affiliates shall not be required to give effect to any purported transfer of such Shares except upon compliance with the foregoing restrictions.

(c) Accredited Investor. Subscriber, if a U.S. investor, is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act, as amended, and Subscriber is able to bear the economic risk of any investment in the Shares and in the Company. Subscriber shall complete and deliver to the Company prior to Closing an executed copy of the Accredited Investor Questionnaire attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth.

(d) Risk of Investment. Subscriber recognizes that the purchase of the Shares involves a high degree of risk in that: (i) an investment in the Company is highly speculative and only investors who can afford the loss of their entire investment should consider investing in the Company and the Shares; (ii) transferability of the Shares is limited; and (iii) the Company may require substantial additional funds to operate its business and there can be no assurance that the Offering will be completed.

(e) Use of Proceeds. Subscriber understands that the net proceeds of the Offering will be used for operations of the Company and general corporate purposes.

(f) Prior Investment Experience. Subscriber understands the business in which the Company is engaged and has such knowledge and experience in business and financial matters that Subscriber is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the investment in the Shares. (g) Information and Non-Reliance.

(i) Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber has carefully reviewed this Subscription Agreement, which Subscriber acknowledges has been provided to Subscriber. Subscriber has been given the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from, the Company concerning the terms and conditions of this Offering and the Subscription Agreement and to obtain such additional information, to the extent the Company possesses such information or can acquire it without unreasonable effort or expense, necessary to verify the accuracy of same as Subscriber reasonably desires in order to evaluate the investment. Subscriber understands the Subscription Agreement, and Subscriber has had the opportunity to discuss any questions regarding the Subscription Agreement with Subscriber's counsel or other advisor. (ii) The Subscriber represents that it is not relying on (and will not at any time rely on) any communication (written or oral) of the Company, as investment advice or as a recommendation to purchase the Shares, it being understood that information and explanations related to the terms and conditions of the Shares and the Subscription Agreement shall not be considered investment advice or a recommendation to purchase the Shares.

(iii) The Subscriber confirms that the Company has not (i) given any guarantee or representation as to the potential success, return, effect or benefit (either legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting or otherwise) of an investment in the Shares or (ii) made any representation to the Subscriber regarding the legality of an investment in the Shares under applicable legal investment or similar laws or regulations. In deciding to purchase the Shares, the Subscriber is not relying on the advice or recommendations of the Company and the Subscriber has made its own independent decision that the investment in the Shares is suitable and appropriate for the Subscriber.

(h) Tax Consequences. Subscriber acknowledges that the Offering may involve tax consequences and that the contents of the Subscription Agreement do not contain tax advice or information. Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber must retain Subscriber's own professional advisors to evaluate the tax and other consequences of an investment in the Shares. Subscriber intends to acquire the Shares without regard to tax consequences.

(i) Transfer or Resale. The Subscriber is acquiring the Shares solely for the Subscriber's own beneficial account, for investment purposes, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution of the Shares. Subscriber understands that the Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state and, as a result thereof, are subject to substantial restrictions on transfer. Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber may be precluded from selling or otherwise disposing of the Shares for an indefinite period of time. Subscriber understands and hereby acknowledges that the Company is under no obligation to register the Shares under the Securities Act. Subscriber consents that the Company may, if it desires, permit the transfer of the Shares out of Subscriber's name only when Subscriber's request for transfer is accompanied by an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Company that neither the sale nor the proposed transfer results in a violation of the Securities Act or any applicable state "blue sky" laws.

(j) No General Solicitation. Subscriber was not induced to invest in the Company or in the Shares by any form of general solicitation or general advertising including, but not limited to, the following: (i) any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar media or broadcast over the news or radio; (ii) any seminar or meeting whose attendees were invited by any general solicitation or advertising; and (iii) any solicitation within the United States.

(k) Due Authorization; Enforcement. Subscriber has all requisite power and authority (and in the case of an individual, capacity) to purchase and hold the Shares, to execute, deliver and perform Subscriber's obligations under this Subscription Agreement and when executed and delivered by Subscriber, this Subscription Agreement will constitute legal, valid and binding agreements of Subscriber enforceable against Subscriber in accordance with their terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting creditors' and contracting parties' rights generally, and except as enforceability may be subject to general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(l) Address. The residence address of Subscriber furnished by Subscriber on the signature page hereto is Subscriber's principal residence if Subscriber is an individual or its principal business address if it is a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity.

(m) Compliance with Laws. The Subscriber will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in effect in any jurisdiction in which the Subscriber purchases or sells Shares and obtain any consent, approval or permission required for such purchases or sales under the laws and regulations of any jurisdiction to which the Subscriber is subject or in which the Subscriber makes such purchases or sales, and the Company shall have no responsibility therefore.

(n) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. The information set forth herein concerning Subscriber is true and correct. The Subscriber understands that, unless the Subscriber notifies the Company in writing to the contrary at or before the Closing, each of the Subscriber's representations and warranties contained in this Subscription Agreement will be deemed to have been reaffirmed and confirmed as of the Closing, taking into account all information received by the Subscriber.

(o) Entity Representation. If Subscriber is a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity, such entity further represents and warrants that it was not formed for the purpose of investing in the Company.

4. Representations and Warranties of the Company.
